WELCOME!

GREETINGS IN THE NAME OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST,

In this edition of Cub Corner Magazine, we are going to talk about something that is very important to every believer: the still, small Voice that speaks to each one of us.

We know that God speaks to us through His prophets. That's how He wrote the Bible, and how He used Brother Branham to bring His Word. But He also speaks to our hearts, using that same Voice.

In this magazine, we will tell you the stories of a few of those who heard God's Voice, and listened to It. Of course, there is Elijah. He heard the still, small Voice when he was on the run, in a cave. Then there is the prophet Samuel. When he was just a little boy, he heard the Voice of God speaking to him. There are many, many stories of Brother Branham listening to that same Voice. All throughout history, men of God have heard God's still, small Voice.

These stories are fun to read about, and they really give us faith, but I am concerned about YOU! Are you hearing His Voice?

I pray that this magazine will help you learn a little bit more about how to hear God speaking.

God bless you,
Brother Joseph

I'm gonna hide in this magazine. Rhino you can't find me, but try anyway.

Cub Corner is a ministry of Voice Of God Recordings, focused on children 12 years and younger. We are devoted to helping parents build a strong Christian foundation in their children, through the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear Cub Corner,

Thank you for sending me the Cub Corner. I enjoy it every time you send it. I love the pictures and the stories of Brother Branham. Also, I enjoy God's Creations and the cards. In a future Cub Corner, I would like to see Elijah and Elisha, and in God's Creations I would like to learn about deer. The last Cub Corner that you sent has been the best one yet. In my house my dad uses them in our Bible study. God bless you,

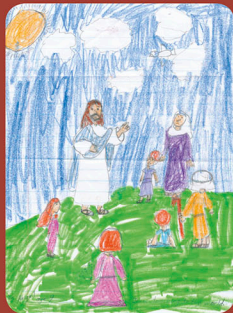

Matthew.

Hi Brother Matthew,

That's a really good idea about Elijah and Elisha. We love the story about how Elisha wouldn't leave Elijah's side. He had seen the power of God, and he would never be the same.

It sounds like you have a really good dad, who likes to teach you about God. You should thank the Lord for that! God bless you,

-CC

Dear Cub Corner,

I have a picture that you might want to put in your next magazine. I like your magazines a lot.

-Abigail

Dear Abigail,

Thank you very much! We like your picture a lot! God bless you,

Dear CC,

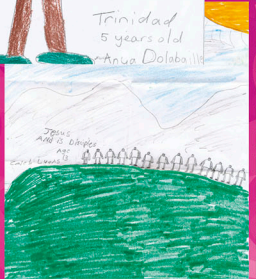

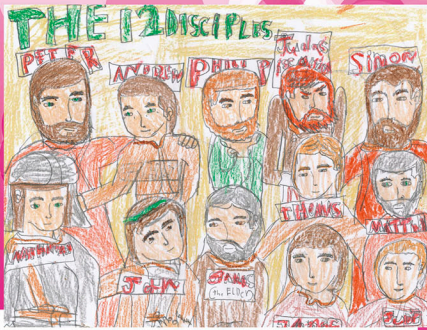

Thanks for all you do for us. You help us gain knowledge of Brother Branham and get prizes. I really like CC magazines, especially Cub and Monkey, they are super cool. Maybe you could put a crossword puzzle in the magazines. Here is my picture of how Jesus loves the little children. Sincerely, God bless you all. Naomi

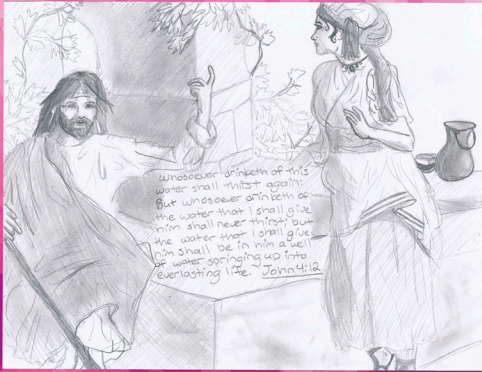

Dear CC,

You are welcome, Sister Naomi. That's a good idea about the crossword puzzle, and we really like your picture. God bless you,

Answer - Well, thank God for a good mummy like mine. She would always tell me before I left her, never compromise and besides, there was a still, small, Voice telling me not to eat it. I was prepared to die rather than to disobey that still, small, Voice.

- Solomon A.

(Enoch) Thank you Enoch, this has been a wonderful interview, I just have one more question: Do you have a dog?

Answer- Haha! Actually, I do. His name is Fritz!

Me - That's funny. That was Brother Branham's dog's name! Well thanks again Enoch. I will see you again on that Glorious day. Bye and God bless you!

IT WAS REALLY NICE FOR YOUR PARENTS TO INVITE US ON A SAFARI WITH THEM.

YEAH, I THINK WE ARE GOING TO HAVE A GREAT TIME.

CUB, CAN I TELL YOU SOMETHING?

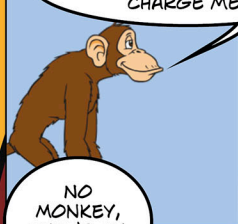

SURE PAL, WHAT IS IT?

I'M REALLY AFRAID THAT A RHINO IS GOING TO CHARGE ME.

I'M SURE YOU'LL BE OK, MONKEY. GOD WILL PROTECT YOU.

WHOA!! IS THAT A RHINO?

IT STARTED OUT AS A REALLY GREAT TRIP FOR THE TWO PALS, BUT SOON MONKEY GOT WAY TOO WORRIED ABOUT RHINOS!

NO MONKEY, THAT'S AN OSTRICH

OH.

AHHH! RHINO! RUN FOR YOUR LIFE!

MONKEY, THAT'S A BLUEBIRD.

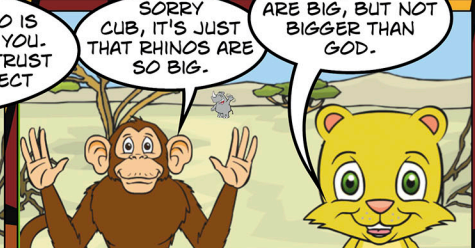

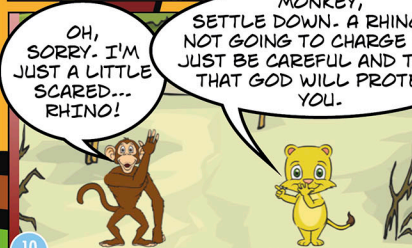

OH, SORRY. I'M JUST A LITTLE SCARED... RHINO!

MONKEY, SETTLE DOWN. A RHINO IS NOT GOING TO CHARGE YOU. JUST BE CAREFUL AND TRUST THAT GOD WILL PROTECT YOU.

SORRY CUB, IT'S JUST THAT RHINOS ARE SO BIG.

YEAH, THEY ARE BIG, BUT NOT BIGGER THAN GOD.

MONKEY DIDN'T WANT TO BE SCARED ANYMORE, BUT HE STILL WAS. HE JUST WANTED TO HAVE FUN WITH HIS PAL BUT HE JUST COULDN'T GET THE RHINOS OUT OF HIS MIND.

RHINO!

NOPE, THAT'S A RABBIT.

RHINO!

BUTTERFLY.

RHINO?

MONKEY, THOSE ARE FLOWERS. WE'VE GOT TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS.

WHEN I GET SCARED OF SOMETHING, I PRAY ABOUT IT, THEN TRUST GOD TO TAKE CARE OF IT. DO YOU WANT TO PRAY ABOUT IT?

YES PLEASE... RHINO!

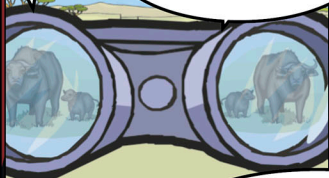

HEY LOOK, CAPE BUFFALO.

OH YEAH, AWESOME. I'VE NEVER SEEN THEM IN REAL LIFE BEFORE.

AREN'T YOU HAPPY THAT JESUS HELPED YOU NOT BE SCARED?

FOR SURE!

THE TWO PALS PRAYED TOGETHER ABOUT MONKEY'S FEAR. BEFORE LONG, MONKEY HAD TOTALLY FORGOTTEN ABOUT RHINOS AND WAS HAVING A BLAST WITH HIS BUDDY.

HEY LOOK, AN ALLIGATOR.

YOU'RE CLOSE, IT'S A CROCODILE.

YOU ARE ONE SMART LION, HOW'D YOU KNOW THAT?

I READ IT IN CUB CORNER MAGAZINE. ISSUE 5!

HEY LOOK CUB, I CAUGHT A UNICORN.

AHHHHH! RHINO !!!

IT IS NORMAL TO BE SCARED SOMETIMES. SOME PEOPLE ARE SCARED OF THE DARK, WHILE SOME ARE SCARED OF ANIMALS OR INSECTS. BUT JUST LIKE MONKEY LEARNED, IF YOU PRAY ABOUT YOUR FEAR, AND ASK THE LORD TO HELP YOU, HE WILL!

CC MADAGASCAR PROJECT

August of this year, we had a very special Missionary Sponsorship Project that many of you helped sponsor. Three brave missionary brothers started on a two week journey to travel through over half the country of Madagascar to deliver the Message of God's prophet to the believers there. It was the first time they had ever heard the voice of Malachi 4 and received Message books in their own language. Here are some photos of their long but victorious journey.

The missionary brothers drove through many dangerous roads and areas as they traveled to the different villages in Madagascar.

THERE WERE DEEP CANYONS!

THERE WERE HUGE BRUSH FIRES!

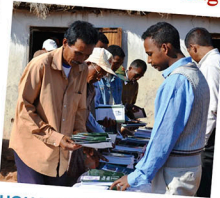

SOME OF THE ROADS WERE SO DUSTY THEY HAD TO WEAR MASKS TO BREATHE!

By the grace of the Lord, The brothers made it safely to each destination.

It was a wonderful & happy time for the believers of Madagascar to receive their long awaited Message material.

EVEN THE CHILDREN GOT TO GO THROUGH THE LINES AND GET THEIR OWN BOOKS.

It was a lot of work to load up the van with new Message material for each distribution trip.

This picture is our Malagasy translator, Brother Solofo (white shirt) giving message material to the man (yellow shirt) who fixed the van after breaking down.

Bro. Keith Herne (Right - VGR SA office manager) and Bro. Nanda (Left - missionary and photographer)

The missionary brothers met many Madagascar children along their journey.

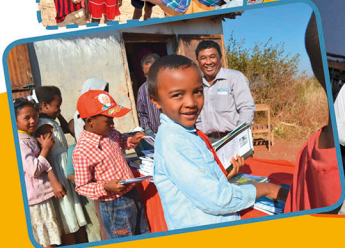

Bro. Keith handing out food and candy to some poor, but happy, children.

There was a lot of fruit in Madagascar. It's a tropical country that stays warm most of the year and doesn't get very cold.

The children of Madagascar were very thankful & happy to know you sent them the Message. They might have even been happier than the adults!

STILL SMALL V

There was once a mighty prophet named Elijah. He was a mysterious man of God that seemed to come out of nowhere. We don't know anything about his past, or what his childhood was like, but we do know that God used him in great and powerful ways.

Elijah lived during the reign of King Ahab and his evil wife, Jezebel. Ahab and Jezebel did not follow the ways of God, and God punished them for it.

One time, everything came to a showdown on a mountain named Mt. Carmel. Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal, and God proved that He was the One true and living God. After God made Himself known, Elijah killed the godless prophets of Baal.

Jezebel was furious! She proclaimed that God's prophet Elijah would die!

Elijah fled from everyone. He went out into the wilderness, sad and alone. He felt like he had failed God, and he couldn't go on any longer.

Voice

He was lying down under a juniper tree when God sent a special angel to care for His prophet-servant. The angel woke Elijah up, fed him, and gave him water. Soon Elijah's strength was restored and he traveled forty days to a place called Mt. Horeb, where he entered into a cave.

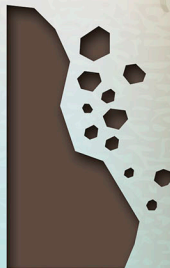

Elijah was longing to hear the Voice of God when a great and strong wind came. It was so strong that it tore rocks loose from the mountain. But God wasn't in the wind.

Then, there was an earthquake. But God wasn't in the earthquake.

Next came a fire, but God wasn't in the fire either.

Finally, after the huge wind, the earthquake, and the fire, God spoke to His servant, Elijah. How could God speak in a greater, more powerful way than wind, earthquake and fire? What would He send next? Was it something massive, and loud? Would it be something that people miles away would hear? Would it shake the whole earth? Nope, it was a still, small Voice.

God chose to speak to His prophet in a small, quiet way. He could have spoken many different ways, but that is what He chose. Did you know that God still speaks in a still, small Voice? If you get quiet and listen to Him, you will hear Him. He speaks to your heart. You can hear Him talking to you if you just take the time to listen. Go without all of the distractions of the world, get alone with God, and ask Him to speak to you. Then listen for that still, small Voice.

SAMUEL

There was once a godly woman named Hannah who wanted a child more than anything in the world.

She knew that if God would ever give her a baby, she would do whatever she could to make sure he was raised for God. She was desperate, until one day, God answered her prayer and gave her the little boy that she had wanted so badly. God had given Hannah an extra special gift, her son wasn't just any regular child, he was born to be a prophet of God. She named her little prophet-son, Samuel. Hannah kept her promise to God and sent Samuel to be raised in the temple by the priest, Eli.

When Samuel was still a young boy in the temple, he was laying asleep when he heard a Voice call out, "Samuel, Samuel." Samuel quickly went to the priest, Eli, to see what he wanted. But it wasn't Eli who was calling him.

Eli told Samuel to go lay back down. Then the Voice came again, and Samuel went to Eli and said "Here am I!" But Eli answered, "I called not, my son; lie down again."

Then it happened a third time, and Samuel came to Eli again. This time the wise old priest realized that the LORD had called the child. So Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth."

So Samuel went and laid down in his place again, and sure enough the LORD came and called like He did the other times, "Samuel, Samuel." And Samuel answered, "Speak; for thy servant heareth." The Lord then told Samuel what was going to take place in the house of Eli. Even though he was very young, Samuel heard the Voice of God, and he listened to It.

After this happened, the Bible said, "...Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground."

Samuel learned a valuable lesson that night. He learned to listen for that still, small Voice speaking to his heart. From that time on, the Lord was able to speak to, and through Samuel to prophesy to the children of Israel, and to the world. Like Brother Branham is to the people of this age, Samuel became God's mouthpiece to the people of that age, because he always listened to, and obeyed, that still, small Voice.

God can speak to you just the same as He did to Samuel and Brother Branham, so we want to always be sure to listen closely when we hear something speaking to our hearts. It might just be that still, small Voice of God.

Eli said, "No, my son, I never called you."

That wasn't me that spoke to your heart, friend. That was God. Just speak back and say, "Thy servant heareth; and take me into Your care today, God. Let me from this day be wholly Thine."

Eternal God, Lover of the soul, Creator of all things, while that still small Voice of God that spoke to Samuel, that spoke to Saul, that spoke to Peter, that spoke to Daniel, and Isaiah the prophet, and all down through the ages, has spoke again this morning in the tabernacle...

God's Schedule

AFTER LEARNING about the story of Elijah, we know for sure that God uses the still, small Voice to speak to His prophets. But did you know that God speaks to us the same way?

One time, Brother Branham was in Fort Wayne, Indiana. He was staying in a hotel called the "Indiana Hotel." News had gotten around about Brother Branham being in town, and people were everywhere, wanting to see him.

One morning, Brother Branham wanted to have breakfast with Sister Branham and a Sister named Mrs. Morgan. The meetings had been so popular, Brother Branham and his wife had to sneak out a secret back door of the hotel just to avoid the crowds.

THE PLAN was to go to a certain restaurant, but while they were on their way there, Something told Brother Branham to turn left. He didn't know what it meant, but he listened. Soon he found himself inside a completely different restaurant, called Miller's Cafeteria. Just as Brother Branham sat down, someone said, "Praise the Lord." It was a woman who needed healing for her brother. Last night, she had prayed all night, until she had a dream. In the dream, she was told to be at Miller's Cafeteria at 9:00 AM. She was right on time, and so was Brother Branham. He prayed for her and she received her request!

Brother Branham left the restaurant and walked outside. Strangely, a sister named Mrs. Domico was standing there. When she saw Brother Branham, she fell to the ground. She told him that she was dying of cancer, and last night she dreamed that she should be standing outside Miller's Cafeteria at 9:10 AM. Now she was face to face with God's prophet!

BROTHER BRANHAM finally headed back to the hotel, but God still had some more appointments for him. As Brother and Sister Branham approached the hotel, that still, small Voice once again changed Brother Branham's plans. It told him to stop. Brother Branham listened to It and stood there by the street corner for 10-15 minutes, not knowing why.

Finally, the Voice told him to approach a certain lady. She was wearing a checkered skirt, a cap, and she had a pocketbook under her arm. She walked right by Brother Branham, and never seemed to notice him. But then, she turned and looked back.

She said "Brother Branham,"

"Good morning, sister," Brother Branham replied.

9:00AM: Meet and pray for a woman in Miller's Cafeteria.

9:10AM: Pray for Mrs. Domico outside Miller's Cafeteria.

And she said, "Well, I--I only allowed a hundred and fifty dollars a year in America." She said, "I used all that up," and she said, "I slept in a hotel lobby last night. I had five cents for a cup of coffee this morning. And I started out here to hitchhike, going back to Canada." A young woman about thirty or thirty-five years old, said, "I was going to hitchhike back to Canada down there." And she said, "I was going way down the street there, and Something said to me, 'Turn this way,' but said, 'it was off the highway, but I just couldn't go any farther. Said, 'Turn this way.'" And she said, "I just kept coming till I happened to turn around and look at you."

I said, "What's your trouble?"

53-1204 AT THY WORD

9:35AM: Pray for Canadian woman on street corner.

THE SISTER started crying while she told Brother Branham her story. She was desperate. She didn't even have enough money to get home, so she would have to hitchhike all the way back to Canada. Something just told her to head down that street. She listened to that still, small, Voice that was speaking to her and it led her right to where Brother Branham was waiting.

Brother Branham asked her what her trouble was, and she said it was her arm. Then she stretched it out like nothing was ever wrong with it! She started rejoicing right there in the street!

Now all the people were paying attention, and they recognized Brother Branham. He had a prayer line right there in the middle of downtown Fort Wayne, Indiana!

IF BROTHER BRANHAM would have been the only one who was listening to that still, small, Voice, no one would have been in the right place for him to pray for them. God will work it all out, if we can just learn to listen to Him speaking to us.

GOD'S CREATIONS RHINOS

RHINOCEROS

God is a God of variety. He created the butterfly, the hummingbird, and the rhinoceros. They are really different from each other, but they are all God's Creations!

A Rhinoceros looks like it could be from a different planet. They are huge and they have thick skin that looks really tough. Their big noses and wrinkled lips sort of look funny, but make sure not to tell them that, rhinos can sometimes have bad attitudes!

"Look here. He makes—He makes big trees, little trees, thin trees. He makes white flowers, blue flowers. God is a God of variety. He... And He makes little people, big people, short people, thin people. That's just the way we'll be in the resurrection. And we shall know each other as we are known. Thanks be to God." 53-0512

RHINO HORNS

Rhino horns can grow to nearly 5 feet long! They are made from something called keratin. That's the same stuff that fingernails and hair are made of... Weird. And just like fingernails, if a rhino's horn gets broken it can grow right back!

RHINO SKIN

A rhino's skin can be over half an inch thick! But even though it's thick it is still sensitive to the sun. YUP, rhinos can get SUNBURNS! To shield themselves from the sun, they cover themselves in mud. Aren't you glad you have sunblock instead?

RHINO NOSES

Rhinos have a great sense of smell. So the way we see it, a rhino can smell good and smell bad at the same time!

RHINO EYES

Rhinos can't see very well. I wonder what a rhino wearing glasses would look like?

RHINO FACTS:

- SOME RHINOS CAN WEIGH AS MUCH AS 6,000 LBS. THAT'S A LOT OF RHINO!
- RHINOS CAN RUN 35 MILES PER HOUR!
- SOME RHINOS GROW TO OVER 6 FEET TALL AND MORE THAN 11 FEET IN LENGTH.
- RHINOS HAVE BEEN KNOWN TO ATTACK TREES, OR LARGE ROCKS. THEY ARE NOT VERY SMART, BUT I'M NOT GOING TO TELL THEM THAT!

MORE RHINO FACTS:

- A GROUP OF RHINOS IS CALLED A "HERD" OR A "CRASH".
- A RHINO IS THE SECOND-LARGEST LAND MAMMAL (AFTER THE ELEPHANT).
- RHINOCEROS EAT PLANTS...LOTS AND LOTS AND LOTS OF PLANTS.
- RHINOS CAN BE FIERCE FIGHTERS. SOMETIMES THE LOSER OF A RHINO FIGHT DIES FROM ITS INJURIES.

A rhino's brain only weighs about one pound. That's pretty small compared to how big they are.

The plural form of rhino can be "rhinoceros" or "rhinoceroses". But when WE see a group of rhinos coming we don't call them anything. We just scream and run away.

In Greek, "rhino" means nose. Ceros means "horn." I think we should just call them "nosehorns" - unless you speak Greek, then you can say rhinoceros.

Javan and Indian rhinos only have one horn. White, black and Sumatran rhinoceros have two.

This little feller is called the "Rhinoceros Beetle." I wonder why they call it that?

GOD

Still Speaks

God speaks to us just like He spoke to Elijah; with a still, small Voice. It's up to us to listen to it.

Imagine being in a noisy room with a lot of people talking. Some of them are talking to you, and some are talking to each other. You are trying to listen to all of them, but you can only focus on one person at a time. You can hear everyone, but you really can't understand anyone. It would be pretty hard to have an important conversation with a good friend in a loud place like that.

Now imagine being in a nice, quiet place. There's only one other person with you, and he has something important to tell you. There are no people or other distractions around you. Your toys and games are put away. There are no TVs, video games, movies, cell phones, or anything else to steal your attention away from the person talking to you. Everything is focused on your conversation. You hear every word he says to you, and you have time to speak back to him.

Sometimes we put ourselves in the noisy, crowded room, and we try to listen to God in there. The problem is that God is speaking quietly and everyone else is really loud. It seems like every now and then you hear a Word or two of what He is saying, but it is nearly impossible to hear everything.

Wouldn't you like to ask God to leave the noisy room with you, and come out to a nice quiet spot where you can sit down alone with Him? Well, you can.

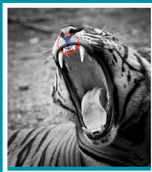

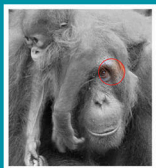

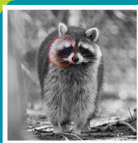

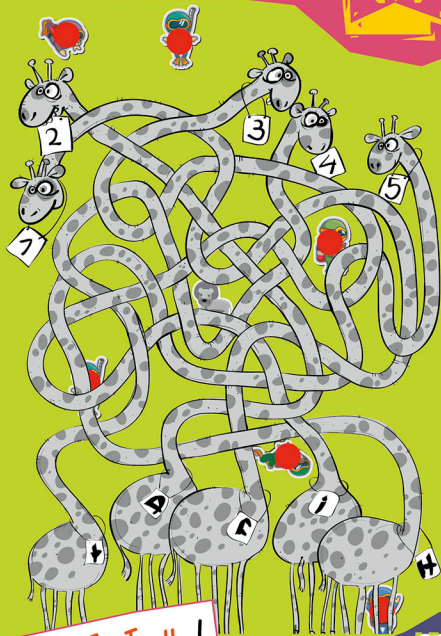

The first thing you will need to do is get away from anything that can distract you. Make sure you are in a quiet spot without any other voices around. Then, take time to get all of the distractions out of your mind. Only think about Jesus. Tell Him that you want to hear what He is saying; then listen. God will speak to your heart. When He does, remember how He spoke to Elijah. It wasn't in a loud wind, earthquake or fire, but in a still, small Voice.

"David was a hunter and a shepherd, and in the Psalms he wrote of green pastures and still waters, because there he was alone by himself. He wasn't contaminated with the things of the world. God has to get a man away from the things of the world, so He can get him quiet, so he can listen to God, that still, small Voice."
