

IN THIS ISSUE:

UZZIAH
— THE KING —

JOSIAH
THE LITTLE BOY WHO WAS KING

WELCOME!

Hi everyone! I trust that everything is going good for you and your families. Things sure are busy around here. We are working really hard on Still Waters, working on new things for our Cub Corner website, and planning all sorts of really neat things for this year.

In this issue of Cub Corner Magazine we are talking about kings. There were lots of kings in the Bible. Some of them were good and some were bad. Some of them, like Josiah, were really young, maybe even younger than you! Would you like to be a king?

We tell the story of young King Josiah in this issue. He was a good king who loved God and wanted to serve Him. We also tell the story of King Uzziah. He was the king who the prophet Isaiah really looked up to. Could you imagine a prophet of God looking up to you? That would be a really big responsibility!

I hope that you enjoy learning about kings in this issue of Cub Corner Magazine, but let's not ever forget the King of kings. He is the One who we all look to as our perfect Leader; the One who is above every king and prophet ever to walk the earth, the true King, Jesus Christ!

We should be so thankful that God sent us the ultimate King that gave His own Life for us! As you read about kings in the Bible, be thinking about the real King!

God bless you,
Brother Joseph

DEAR CC

Dear CC,

I have a small testimony. Before I was born my mom went to the doctor. They said she would have twins, then they saw it was just me. They said me or my mom would die. My mom went home and she prayed. The next day she had me. We both lived! Praise God!

I am 8 years old, and I love to sing. God bless you,

Rebecca

Dear CC,

I love your magazines. To me the best part is the God's Creations.

I love animals and nature. I have a fish named "Willie." He stays in my room, but when my family and I are going to listen to a tape, I bring him outside on the table. One evening while we were listening to a tape, I pointed the Brother Branham picture to him that is behind the Message book and he wouldn't move. He will look at the picture as long as I point the picture to him. He would only move if I move the book away.

I think it is amazing how he listens and observes Brother Branham and his voice.

God bless you all!!

Ashley

P.S. Can you PLEASE put this craft in the next magazine?

Hi Ashley,

How's Willie? He sounds like a really awesome fish! Have you ever heard the story of the time that God gave the little fishy its life back?

Wouldn't you love to have been there with Brother Branham to see that?

We put your Play-Dough craft in the magazine, thanks for sending it in! God bless you,

-CC

Dear CC,

Greetings in the Name of Jesus. My name is Chisome Mgbemena. I am eight years old. I want to tell you that your stories in Cub Corner are very interesting and I love all the games.

I am praying to God for a brother and I believe God will give him to me - please help me to pray. Thank you.

Me and my family live in Germany, but we go to church in Amsterdam because that is the nearest Message church to us (my drawing.)

Please, I know it is hard, but can you make me a Cub Corner Magazine in German please! May God help you in making my German version. Thank you and God bless you all.

Chisome

P.S. Enclosed is my picture. Please publish it so that I can have it always like the others in the CC. Thank you!

Hi Chisome,

Thank you for your letter. Let's ask all the Cub Corner kids to pray God will send you a little brother!

We would love to make you a German magazine, and maybe some day in the future we will get to.

Check out your picture on the next page! God bless you,

God healed my dog!

Dear CC,

I would like to give a testimony about my dog, "hunter."

We got him on my birthday and he had parvo, and we had to force feed him day and night. Well, on the third or forth night, my uncle came over and told me, "If you want this dog to really live, then pray for him." So I did exactly what he said, then one day later he started drinking water again, and playing with me and my brother!

God bless you,

Brother Chris

New Mexico

That's a great story, Brother Chris. It sounds like you have a really wise uncle. Tell Hunter that Noodle said, "ruff" (that's "hello" in dog language.)

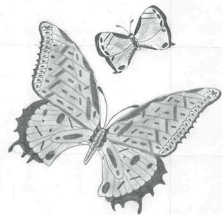

God bless you,

SUNDAY SCHOOL GAMES

Play these games in Sunday School, or at home with your family.

For this game you will need a white board, chalk board, or something else that you will be able to erase.

First, have someone pick a Bible verse and write out the whole verse on the board. The first person reads the Bible verse, then erases one word from it. The second person reads the Bible verse, but says the missing word. If he gets it right, he then erases another word, and the third person in line reads the Bible verse. This continues until no one is able to get the whole verse right, or all the words are erased and players are still reading the entire verse.

For God so the world,
He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever
in Him not perish, but everlasting

John 3:16

Game 2

Sit in a circle and pick a Bible verse that many people in your group already know. The first person in line says the first word of the verse. Then the second person says the second word and so on. The first person to miss a word is out. If you don't all know one, pick a short one and memorize it as a group first.

To make the game harder, try to go faster!

REAL OR FAKE ?

EVERYONE SEEMS TO LIKE THIS GAME, SO LET'S GIVE IT ANOTHER TRY!

denture donkeys

Technically this is called a single horned Texas donkey, but they are more commonly known as denture donkeys. They have huge buck teeth, and a strange horn that always grows in place of their right ear.

elephant seal

Elephant seals are seals that get their name from their large nose that looks like an elephant's trunk. Notice that they don't have ears! They live near the ocean and are great swimmers. At one point they were almost hunted into extinction, but now their numbers are doing really well.

These small primates are found in Southeast Asia. Each eye of the tarsier is as large as its brain! Is that what your eyes look like when you see dessert coming?

Tarsiers are really small. Their bodies are only 4-5 inches long, but their hind legs are nearly 10 inches when they are unfolded. Their springy legs make them great jumpers, which helps catch insects, lizards, and even bats!

The fastest moving of the turtle family, the ebbaloney has feet that look like a cat's feet more than a typical turtle's. It scoots along about twice as fast as the average turtle, but pays for it with its inability to swim.

They seem like they would make great pets, but attempts to domesticate them have failed miserably, mostly due to their very short temper and sharp claws.

The Cub Corner website character page just keeps growing. Learn about each character, listen to a quote from Brother Branham, and even take a quiz all right there on the Cub Corner character page!

Send in your artwork to Cub Corner and we will try to post it for everyone to see.

ASHLEY'S SUPER-COOL PLAY DOUGH

Here are two types of play dough you can make.

#1 Cooked dough

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup of flour
- 1/2 cup of salt
- 2 tbsp of cream of tartar
- 1 cup of water
- 1 tsp cooking oil
- Food coloring

STEPS:

1. In a pot, mix together the flour, salt, and cream of tartar. Stir in the water and oil.
2. Cook the mixture over medium-to-low heat, stirring constantly. When the mixture is thick and smooth, turn off the stove and remove the pot.
3. Spoon the play dough out onto a counter that's dusted with flour. Allow it to cool for a few minutes.
4. Divide the dough into two or three balls. Knead a different food coloring into each ball until the color is even. If the dough gets sticky, mix in a bit more flour.
5. Store each color of dough in a separate plastic bag when you aren't playing with it, and it will keep for months!

#2 Uncooked dough

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup of flour
- 1/4 cup of salt
- 1/2 cup of water

STEPS:

1. In the bowl, stir together the flour and salt. Then add the water.
2. Mix the dough with your hands. If it does not hold together, add a little more water. If it is sticky, add a little flour. The dough is right when it does not stick to your hands.
3. Divide the dough into two or more balls. Mix a few drops of food coloring into each ball. For a marbled look, only mix the ball up a little bit.
4. If you are not going to use the dough right away, store it in a separate plastic bag. It will last in the fridge for one to two weeks.

quiet time

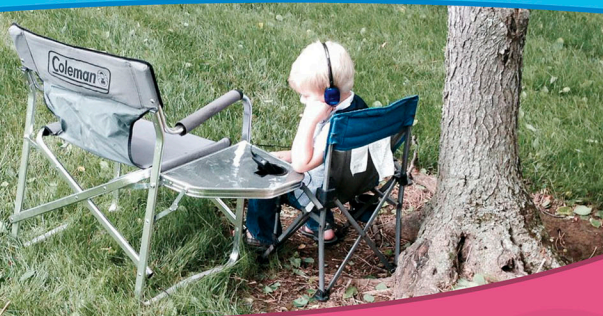

SOMETIMES IT'S FUN TO SIT DOWN WITH YOUR MOMMY Or daddy and just talk. It's nice to know that they aren't thinking about anyone but you. You can tell them what you're thinking about, tell them about your toys, or even tell them what you want for your birthday. Most importantly, you can tell them about how you love God.

The problem is that parents are so busy and they are hard to get to sit still. It seems like they always have something important to do. They are either cooking, going somewhere, or talking to someone else. Urrgh.

But it is different with God. He always has time for you, and He wants to hear from you. That's what Quiet Time is all about. Any time you want, just get alone and talk to Him. You can tell Him anything that you want, and He will listen. Then give God a turn to talk back to you. Listen and see what He says to your heart. That's Quiet Time. Give it a try!

Here is a picture of our young Brother Gideon from Jeffersonville. He was having his Quiet Time out by a tree. Gideon made sure to bring an extra chair for Jesus to sit in.

He knows how special Quiet Time is, do you?

God bless you Brothers and Sisters,

This is me, Giuliana, almost 13 years old, having my Quiet Time with the Lord Jesus Christ.

I got an App from my iPad for Art, and I did this painting that was in my heart to do.

When I showed this painting to my family they said I should send it to you.

I pray my painting will be a blessing to you all.

We went to Jeffersonville in 2013 to take my brother Gege for his first camp. I'm looking forward so much for this year's camp! It will be my first one.

Thank you for all you do for us.

God bless you.

the peasant King

There was once a good king who loved his people very much.

He dedicated his life to serving his people, but he had a hard time understanding exactly what they were going through.

You see, this king was born into a royal family so he always knew that he would become king. He never had to cut wood with the wood chopper, or work in the fields like the farmer. It was hard for him to really understand what it was like to be a regular person in his kingdom.

SO ONE DAY this king decided to become a peasant himself. He would lay down his crown, and give up all of his power so he could work like the workers in the field, and struggle through life like those who lived in his kingdom.

The king told his guards and his noblemen, "Today, you see me for your last time, for many years."

"Good king, why do you say that?" They asked, "Are you going to a foreign country?"

The king replied, "No, I'm going out amongst my subjects. I'm going to become a peasant."

His guards and noblemen were amazed. Why would the king become a peasant? Why should he care what others have to go through? He will always be king, so what does it matter to him how others live. It was hard for them to understand, but the king's mind was made up. The good king left the castle, and lived in disguise among the peasants so he could understand them better.

The king loved his people, and he wanted to understand their needs and wishes, so he became one of them!

God did the same thing for us. He changed Himself from being Jehovah God, to become one of us, named Jesus Christ. Jesus was tempted like us, He suffered like us, and He even died like us. He didn't have to do any of that, He was God. But because He loves us so much, He decided to know exactly what it was like to be one of us.

Now when we talk to God, we know that He understands exactly what we mean, because He made Himself into a Human Being named Jesus!

UZZIAH

THE KING

KING UZZIAH WAS A GREAT MAN, AND A GREAT KING OF JUDAH during the time of Isaiah the prophet. He was a shepherd boy who loved the outdoors. Even though Uzziah was only 16 years old when he became king, he was raised by a godly father and mother who taught him right from wrong. Uzziah obeyed God and God blessed him for it.

King Uzziah may not have even known it at the time, but the young king had someone very important watching him.

Isaiah the prophet was younger than King Uzziah, and he looked up to the godly king. Soon the two would become good friends.

Sometimes Isaiah would even go to the castle to stay with King Uzziah. Together, they would go to the temple and pray, and ask the will of the Lord for their people. They both knew that they were special people, who were chosen by God to lead the people of Judah.

Because of their faith, God helped Uzziah build up his kingdom and defeat his enemies.

He built great towers and walls, and giant gates to fortify Jerusalem. Uzziah had 2,600 mighty men of valor, plus a powerful army of 307,500 men to help fight against their enemies. Uzziah's fighting men had shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and slings to throw stones. The Bible even tells us that Uzziah had "engines" that were invented by "cunning" men. They were placed on the towers and walls of the city, to shoot arrows and huge stones down on their attackers!

King Uzziah's fame spread all over the land. His people loved him and his enemies feared him!

Then one day everything changed. Uzziah got too proud and did something terribly wrong. Uzziah knew that God loved him, and he knew that God was with him, but he got proud and tried to take the place of a priest. Uzziah was a king, not a priest! But he did what God only wanted the priests doing; he burned incense in the temple.

God immediately struck Uzziah down with the dreaded disease, leprosy. God loved Uzziah, but His Law was that only a priest should burn incense in the temple. Not even the good king of Judah is above God's law, and so Uzziah would soon die with the horrible disease.

This taught God's prophet, Isaiah, a valuable lesson. He knew that Uzziah was a great, great man, but because he got out of his place, God had to take him away.

It drove the prophet to the temple, to pray. There, he saw a vision of the real King. He saw God lifted up, high above all the heavens. God said, "Look up this way, I am your Example."

From that time on, the prophet Isaiah knew what God wanted him to do. He was to serve God and only God! It was a valuable lesson that we can all learn from. Always look to God, and serve Him with all of your heart. If you do that, God will be able to use you in great and wonderful ways!

We want to always keep godly influences in our lives, and to be godly influences for others to see, but like Isaiah we must always remember to look to God and His Word for our main Example.

"And Uzziah become a—a hero to Isaiah. You see, because of his—his stand for God, he became a hero in the eyes of the righteous. And there might not been too many righteous. See? But the thing we want to do, is make our life count for God. Somebody is watching you." 62-1013

THE LITTLE BOY WHO WAS KING

There was once a young boy named Josiah. He was probably like most boys his age, except for one small difference: Josiah was the King of Judah! He was only eight years old, but he was king!

Josiah was a good boy who loved God and wanted to serve Him, but there were many people in Josiah's country who didn't serve God. There were people in the land who worshipped false gods and had forgotten how God had cared for the Hebrew people. They worshipped statues and idols instead of the Lord. They loved the things of the world, instead of the things of God, and they had forgotten how to keep God's laws and commandments. Josiah wanted his kingdom to trust in the Lord, so things had to change!

One day, Josiah gave an order: Go tell the high priest to get the money that has been brought into the house of God and use it to hire workers to rebuild the temple of the Lord. The people did as their king commanded, and work began on the temple right away. Then something incredible happened. While working on the temple, they found the book of the law of Moses. It was God's Word that had been missing for hundreds of years!

They immediately took the book to King Josiah and read it to him. Josiah was stunned! He had finally heard the Word of God, and realized that the Hebrew people were not serving God as they should! He was so devastated that he tore his clothes. He knew that God was not happy with them, and He had to do something about it.

King Josiah knew that everyone must hear God's Word.

He gathered the people together and read God's Word aloud for everyone to hear. Then Josiah made a covenant with the Lord. They would keep His commandments and serve Him with everything they had!

All the altars to false gods were torn down and destroyed. The statues and idols were broken and burned, and the people renewed their faith in the One true and living God!

Josiah had learned that the Word of God corrects us, and we need to live by It. When the kingdom of Judah was in sin, it was God's Word that got them back on the right track. The same is true for us. We have God's Word available to us whenever we want It. We can read our Bibles as often as we want, and we can hear God's prophet speak directly to us.

If you ever feel like you are not serving God the way you should be, just do what Josiah did; get back in the Word of God!

You can read this in II Kings Chapter 22

CC ADVENTURES

YEAH, BUT I DON'T KNOW MUCH ABOUT THEM.

THEY ARE COMPLETELY AWESOME! THEY GET TO SIT IN HOT TUBS ALL DAY LONG!

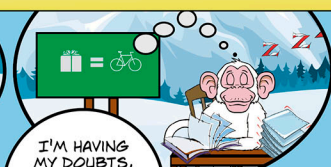

AND THEY GET TO PLAY IN THE SNOW, AND EAT SNOW CONES, AND MAKE SNOW ANGELS, AND DRINK SLUSHIES, AND GO VISIT THEIR GRANDMA'S HOUSE WHENEVER THEY WANT!

THEY ALSO GET TO PLAY ALL DAY, THEY DON'T HAVE TO DO SCHOOLWORK, THEY GET EXTRA DESSERT, THEY NEVER HAVE TO TAKE A BATH, THEY STAY UP LATE, AND EAT SKITTLES EVERY NIGHT.

THEY GET TO JUMP ON THEIR BEDS, LEAVE THEIR TOYS OUT, WEAR DIRTY SOCKS, BOTHER THEIR SISTERS, HAVE FRIENDS SLEEP OVER, NOT TIE THEIR SHOES, AND THEY GET TO DRIVE A CAR WHEN THEY'RE NINE!!!

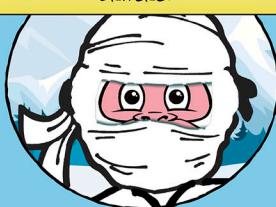

I'M HAVING MY DOUBTS, MONKEY. IT SEEMS LIKE YOU'RE MAKING THAT UP.

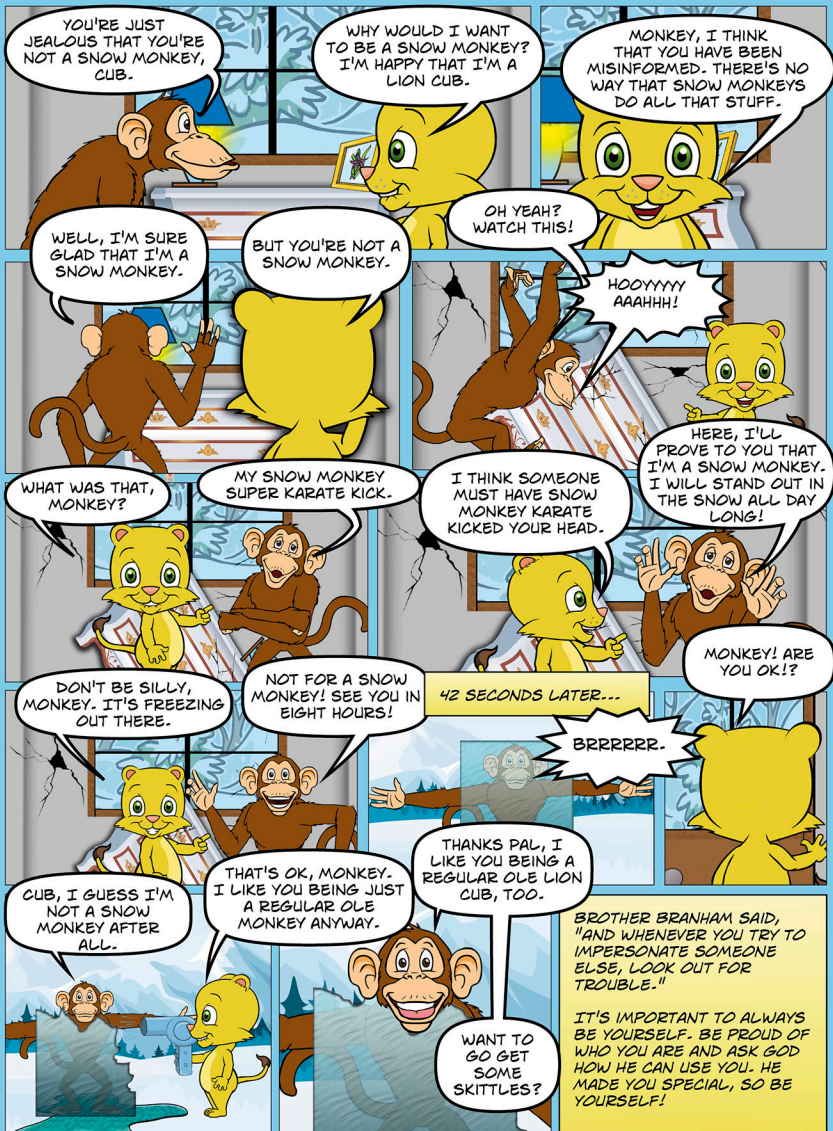

DON'T DOUBT ME. THEY GET TO WEAR WHATEVER THEY WANT, THEY DRIVE SNOWMOBILES ALL THE TIME, THEY SLEEP LATE, PLAY WITH SHARP THINGS, AND THEY EAT PANCAKES WITH ICE CREAM ON TOP FOR BREAKFAST.

<SIGH> MONKEY, I THINK THAT YOU MIGHT BE EXAGGERATING A LITTLE BIT.

NOPE, THEY GET TO HAVE SWORD FIGHTS INSIDE THE HOUSE, THEY DO KARATE KICKS OFF THEIR DAD'S BED, AND THEIR UNCLER ARE RACE CAR DRIVERS.

“Let Nothing Discourage You”

THERE WAS ONCE A YOUNG MAN NAMED WILLIAM. It wasn't Brother Branham, but a different William. His name was William Upshaw. When he was just 18 years old he fell onto the crosspiece of a wagon frame and broke his spine. He was paralyzed for the next 66 years. He could not use his legs at all and just had to lay in bed or use a wheelchair or crutches if he wanted to go anywhere.

Fortunately for Mr. Upshaw, he had become a Christian before his accident, so he knew that God still had something for him to do. He knew that he had to serve God, so he didn't let his disability stop him. He went to school and worked really hard while always putting God first.

Mr. Upshaw would go from school to school telling young people:

“LET NOTHING DISCOURAGE YOU.
NEVER GIVE UP.”

He told people about Jesus and how He could still heal people, but for some reason, it wasn't his turn to be healed yet.

People really liked Mr. Upshaw, so much so, that he was elected to the United States Congress! Now Mr. Upshaw would be called “Congressman Upshaw!”

While in Congress, Congressman Upshaw fought hard to pass good, godly laws that would help our country, but God still wasn't done with him.

Congressman Upshaw had become an old man. He was 84 years old and he was still crippled, but he still had never given up.

He had heard about another man named William, William Branham. Congressman Upshaw knew that Brother Branham was a mighty prophet of God, so one night he went to go hear him.

It was an incredible service, but for the congressman, it was about to get even more incredible. As the service was ending, Brother Branham told the people to pray for each other. The Holy Spirit came down and moved through the audience. Just then, as Brother Branham was being helped from the platform, he said “Go tell the congressman that God has healed him. I seen him going, walking away.”

Word quickly got back to the congressman that Brother Branham had seen him in a vision. So for the first time in 66 years he threw down his crutches and walked normally! He would never use them again.

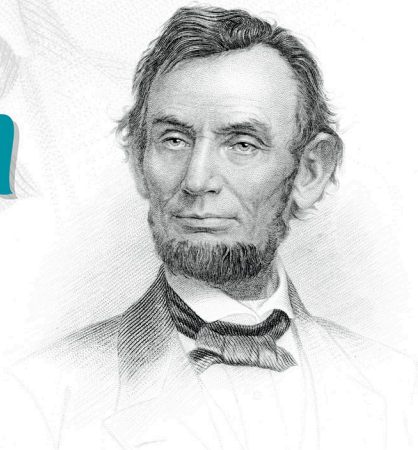

Congressman Upshaw had to wait patiently for 66 years for God to heal him, but he let nothing discourage him, and he never gave up!

God used his prophet, Brother Branham, to deliver the great news to the good congressman, and God still uses His prophet to tell us our good news. God can answer every need you have. Just let nothing discourage you - and never give up!

*Thank you God and humanity
Wm. D. Upshaw*

Abraham Lincoln

HERE IN THE U.S. WE DON'T HAVE A KING, BUT WE DO HAVE A PRESIDENT. JUST LIKE ISRAEL IN THE BIBLE TIMES, WE HAVE HAD SOME REALLY GOOD, GODLY PRESIDENTS, AND OTHERS WHO DIDN'T SERVE GOD.

Abraham Lincoln was a good one. He was born one hundred years before Brother Branham, and just like Brother Branham, he was born in a little log cabin in the hills of Kentucky. When he was young, he moved to Indiana, just like Brother Branham did, and most importantly - Abraham Lincoln loved and trusted Jesus, just like Brother Branham.

When Abraham Lincoln became the President of the United States, the country was going through a very hard time. Owning slaves was allowed in the south, and not in the north. There was a huge fight over whether or not it was OK to own slaves. Abraham Lincoln knew that it was wrong, and he was brave enough to fight to keep the country together.

In the end, owning slaves became illegal and President Lincoln won. Abraham Lincoln knew that the right thing was worth fighting for. He knew that if he stood for good, godly things, God would be with him.

What sort of good things do you stand for? Write to us and let us know about a time when you stood for something that would have made God proud.

52-0720A
LIFE STORY
BROTHER
SAID >

"And I think down through the age, I think of the father of our nation, George Washington, how he trusted God. I think of Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln, of course, I don't...I'm not a politician, but Lincoln was my favorite amongst all the presidents we've ever had. He had to come up the hard way. Maybe because I had to come that way is the reason I sympathize with Lincoln: splitting rails, and writing in the dirt, and—and so forth. And the only books that, we believe, that Lincoln ever had until he was twenty-one years old was the Bible and the Foxe Book of Martyrs. That's what molded that character."

CUB CORNER FEEDBACK

Here's something cute I thought would bring a smile. I asked my son to pick up the Lincoln logs. We'd just learned about who Abraham Lincoln was; so he thought I was being silly. He asked if they were really called that and why. I said yes they were because Abraham Lincoln was born in a log cabin. Then he said, "Well, I'm just going to rename them then. They are going to be Bro. Branham logs, because he was even more special."

SNOW MONKEY

GOD'S CREATIONS

MONKEYS

Snow monkeys love to lounge around in hot springs. Who can blame them? It is a nice way to warm up when it's ice cold outside.

Can somebody swing me, please?

Snow monkeys are excellent swimmers.

Snow monkeys are really smart. They learn how to find food, then teach others around them how to do it. Sometimes they will even wash their food in water before they eat it.

NOW WHERE DID I PUT THOSE MITTENS?

Depending on where they are from, snow monkeys can weigh from 25-40lbs.

A group of snow monkeys is called a "troop." Sometimes one troop can have hundreds of snow monkeys.

Young snow monkeys love to play in trees. They jump and swing from one tree to the next. They also like to roll up snow balls. They roll them until they get too big, or fall apart. I wonder if they ever think about throwing them at their unsuspecting parents?

One thing snow monkeys are NOT good at is brushing their hair!

Snow monkeys are actually Japanese Macaques, but "snow monkey" is easier to remember.

Snow monkeys eat both meat and vegetables. They enjoy bark, twigs, fruit, insects, eggs and other small animals.

REAL?

Did you think this one was real?
Nope, it's fake. Sorry.

Elephant seals are real! Funny looking, but real.

Tarsiers are real too. Have you ever seen one in real life? None of us here at Cub Corner have, but they are still real.

We didn't trick anybody on this one, did we? You guessed it, the ebbloney is total baloney;
not real at all. We don't even wish that it were real, it would just be too weird!

IT'S SO COLD

- ◊ It's so cold that I chipped my tooth on soup.
- ◊ It's so cold that polar bears are buying fur coats!
- ◊ It's so cold that kids are using flannel notebooks.
- ◊ It's so cold that my shadow froze to the ground.
- ◊ It's so cold that my rubber ducky refused to get in the bathtub!
- ◊ It's so cold that instead of yelling "freeze," the cops just yell "Go Outside!"
- ◊ It's so cold that I tried to take out the garbage, but it didn't want to go.

think about this...

a: Frostbite

q: What do snowmen eat for breakfast?

a: Frosted Flakes.

The Weatherman

There was once an old and wise Indian chief. One day in late fall, his tribe came to him and asked if it was going to be a cold winter. The chief didn't know how to answer, so he replied, "Yes, cold winter this year. Gather much firewood."

Later on, the chief decided that he better make sure, so he called the local weatherman and asked him if it was going to be a cold winter. The weatherman answered, "Yes, it looks like it will be pretty cold this winter."

The chief felt pretty confident, so he went back to the tribe and told them gather even more firewood, it was going to be REALLY cold this winter.

Later on, the chief called the weatherman again to confirm, "Still look like a cold winter this year?" The weatherman responded "Oh yes, even colder than I thought!"

"Wow!" the chief thought. He went back to the tribe and told them to collect all the firewood they could, it could be life or death this winter. It's going to be bitter cold."

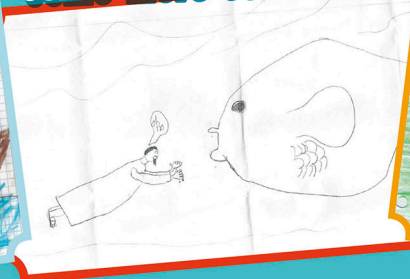

Seeing how hard the whole tribe was working to collect wood, he decided to call the weatherman one more time, just to make sure, "Are you still sure it's going to be super cold this year?"

The weatherman replied, "Yes! I think that it will be the coldest winter that any of us have ever seen!"

"Wow, how do you know these things?" The chief asked.

"Well," the weatherman replied. "You should see how much firewood the Indians are collecting!"
