“And they said one to another, ‘Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?’”

LUKE 24:32

Welcome

I LOVE TO THINK ABOUT JESUS. It makes me happy to imagine myself back in the time that He was here on the earth. What was Jesus like? What would I have said to Him if I met Him on the street? Would I have even recognized Jesus as Someone special? I think I would have.

The reason that I think I would have recognized Jesus is because I recognize Him today. He said that He would never leave us, and I believe Him. He may not be here in human flesh like He was 2,000 years ago, but Jesus is still here, and I know Him; He is my best Friend! Jesus can be your best Friend too, if you want Him to be.

Do you know Him? Do you speak to Him every day, and do you listen for Him to speak back?

In this issue of Cub Corner Magazine we talk about Jesus and how He chose to die for us. He didn't have to do it, but He did because He loves us. I pray that you will enjoy this issue of Cub Corner Magazine, and I trust that it will help you to think about Jesus a little bit more!

God bless you,
Brother Joseph

DEAR CC

Dear CC,

I would like to share a testimony. I was 7 when I went to bed one night. I could not go to sleep. Something in me was saying pray. So finally I prayed and I could go to sleep.
Judah

That's a great testimony, Judah. It shows how great God is. God understands our problems, and He wants to take care of them. When we pray about them, He takes the problems away!

Thank you for sending it to us!

God bless you,

Dear CC,

My name is Elisha and I am 11 years old. I live in Richfield Minnesota. I received CC issue 26, and I really enjoy it. I love all the CC magazines, so please keep up the good work. Me and my little sister, Emma, do home school. Emma just turned 10. Right now when it's nice out, we love to play outside and enjoy the nice weather. What do you like to do right now? Well, I think that's all for my letter. God bless you, Elisha.
P.S. I have a picture of my Bible enclosed.

Dear Elisha,

You have a really great name! I'm sure that you know all about Elisha in the Bible. He was a mighty prophet of God!

Thank you for the compliments on the magazines, they are super fun to make. We are really happy that you like them.

We like to spend time outside too! It's fun to ride a bike or go for a hike in the woods (as long as there aren't too many insects.)

We have a Bible here too; we use it to research what we put in the magazines. We would draw you a picture of it, but we're not too good at drawing. Thank you for the picture of your Bible!

God bless you,
Cub Corner

YOU, Cub, & Monkey

Over the years Cub and Monkey have received a lot of mail and have been asked all kinds of questions. Here are just a few.

Cub, how long have you known Monkey?

I've known Monkey pretty much all my life, so I'm not surprised by all the things he does anymore.

Does Monkey annoy you, Cub?

No way! He is my best friend, and he keeps me laughing really hard. One time I couldn't even fall asleep, just thinking about how hard he made me laugh that day. Only special friends can make you laugh even when they're not there.

But seriously, as a Christian, you always want to help someone that is doing something wrong or annoying. I always try to show monkey love, and try to help him - just like Jesus does to me!

Monkey, did it hurt when you got your tail stuck in the fan?

Which time? The first time it didn't hurt too bad because I was just really surprised. The second time it really hurt because I knew what happened and I had time to think about the pain. The third and fourth times hurt a little, but I was in a hurry to finish my rocket-ship project so I didn't think about it too much. The fifth time was really fun because I was bored. I don't remember the sixth time because my mommy said I was sleep walking.

Monkey, do you get tired of Cub always being right?

No, because I know he is telling me the right way a Christian should do things. I wish that I wasn't always messing up, but I thank the Lord I have a friend that loves me and is always helping me.

Monkey, why do you always get into trouble? Maybe it is to show us little ones what happens when we do not listen.

I don't ALWAYS get into trouble...Only most of the time. Mommy says that trouble just follows me. Maybe that's the reason. I wish it would stop following me! Why can't "candy" follow me instead of trouble?

Monkey, I think you are SUPER funny..... Could you do me a favor and ask Brother Joseph if he could let younger kids go to Still Waters camp?

Sure, I will ask him! Maybe he will let Cub and me be your chaperones! Wouldn't that be fun?!?!?

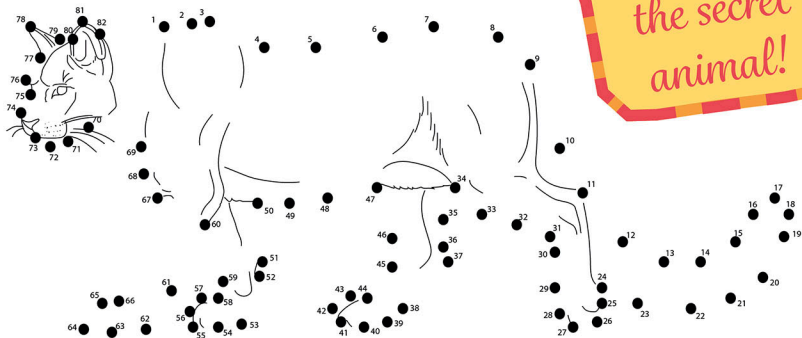

Do you have something that you would like to ask them? Just write to us at:

NICE AND DEEP. THEN WATER
THEM, AND LET THEM GET
PLENTY OF SUNSHINE.

GOT IT.
BURY DEEP,
GIVE WATER,
SUNSHINE.

MONKEY!
THAT'S TOO DEEP.

OH.

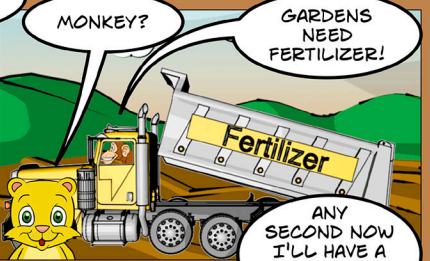

MONKEY!
WHAT ARE YOU

IT, COMMIT IT TO GOD, AND LEAVE IT
THERE. THAT'S THE WAY TO LET IT
GROW, JUST TO LEAVE IT THE WAY
IT'S IN THE GROUND. AND THAT'S WHERE IT'S SUPPOSED TO BE, THE GROUND OF YOUR HEART. FAITH IS WATERING IT, HOURLY, SAYING, 'IF GOD SAID SO, IT'S MINE!' THAT'S THE WAY TO DO IT." 63-1115

the really BIG testimony of little
Gill

I was just a little fishy who lived in a lake in the mountains of Kentucky, close to where Brother Branham was born. My friends called me “little gill,” because I was kind of small for a bluegill. But I could swim really fast and always beat all my friends to the food.

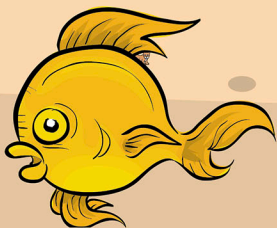

Our favorite place to go was a little cove on the lake where the water was always nice. I guess Brother Branham liked it there too, because that’s where I first met him. I felt like I could swim 100 miles per hour in that water!

It’s so peaceful to live in God’s beautiful creation. I knew Brother Branham came out here to rest from his great ministry. But even out here, God was with His prophet.

One beautiful morning, Brother Branham was fishing with his friends, Brothers Banks and Lyle Wood, at the lake where I live. It was so nice to see them again. I just loved to hear them talk about the Lord, and they seemed to be doing more talking than fishing that morning. Then Brother Branham told them to go to this certain little cove to fish for bluegills for a while. I was so happy, because that was my favorite cove!

I followed them back to the cove, listening the whole time to every word Brother Branham was saying about the Lord. Then I saw something delicious fall into the water. I swam really fast and grabbed it up before my friends could.

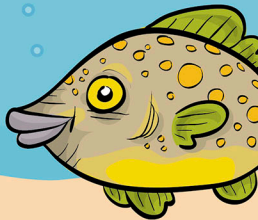

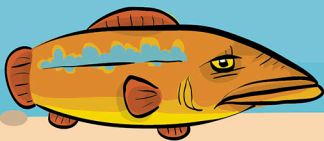

I found out really quick that I had grabbed Brother Lyle’s hook, and swallowed it! I swam as hard as I could and tried to get it out, but I couldn’t. I was scared.

Brother Lyle reeled me in to the boat and tried to get the hook out, but he couldn’t get it out! He pulled really hard until finally the hook came out, but it hurt me really bad. He threw me back into the water so I could breathe, but it was too late. My friends told me I flopped a few times and floated to the top of the water, where I died.

For almost 30 minutes I was just lying there on top of the water, dead. But then something miraculous happened!

You can hear Brother Branham tell this story on the tape:
57-0623 Believe From The Heart

The Spirit of God swept down through that valley, until you'd thought the Rapture was coming. Then God's prophet spoke these words, "Little fish, in the Name of Jesus Christ, come back to life."

I turned on my side, and swam away just as hard as I could go, back to my fellow fish friends. I was alive again! The Lord Jesus Christ proved that day that He was God, when He raised me from the dead!

I'll never forget what the Lord did for me that day. Brother Branham told my testimony all over the world, how God is God even over the little things, like us fish. And now, my testimony continues to be told on the tapes, and in this Cub Corner magazine!

Never forget that God can do ANYTHING for you!

Matthew 21:21-22

Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

Bonus Questions!

- 1) What are a few other names Brother Branham called Bluegill?
- 2) What religion were Brother Banks and Brother Lyle before they heard Brother Branham?

quiet Time with Jesus

It was late one night and Jesus was really sad. He knew that the next day He would be punished and killed by His own people. He had not done anything wrong, but God knew that Someone had to die for the sins of the world, and that Person was Jesus.

Jesus was a human being, just like you and me, but He was also God. He was God in human flesh. He had the same thoughts and feelings that you have. He didn't want to be made fun of, or hurt, and He surely didn't want to be crucified; no one would want that. No wonder He was so sad and distressed.

Jesus was in agony, but He knew what to do: He had Quiet Time.

Jesus had brought His disciples to a place called the Garden of Gethsemane, then He took Peter, James, and John and went off a little deeper into the garden. Jesus told them that He was really sad, and He needed to go pray.

Could you imagine what He was thinking about? He knew that the next day He would be killed, but He also knew that all He had to do was speak the Word and every Angel in Heaven would come to His rescue! He could destroy all of His enemies in no time at all. Jesus had the power to get Himself out of this situation, but He knew that God had a different purpose for Him.

As Jesus sat there having Quiet Time with God, He had to make a decision.

The garden must have felt very sad and lonely that night. The weight of every sin was laying on Jesus and He had to face it by Himself.

As Jesus sat there having Quiet Time with God, He knew it was time to make His choice. Now was the moment that would change the course of human history. Would He speak the Word and call down thousands of Angels to rescue Him? Or, He could do what God wanted Him to and be made fun of, spit on, tortured and killed for our sakes. What would you have done?

You already know what Jesus chose. He loved us so much that He chose God's way and died for our sins. It was the greatest thing that any person has ever done for another person, and He made His decision to do it while having Quiet Time with God!

You can also have Quiet Time, just like Jesus did. Just get alone and tell God about your questions and problems. Ask Him to guide you, just like He did Jesus, and He will!

Jesus was brought Himself to a decision. And before going to Calvary, the Father brought His own Son into conference in Gethsemane, while Angels taken their positions, to see what the decision would be.

Oh, it might not have been this way, but let's think maybe it was. I can hear Him say, "Son, do You desire to go on to Calvary? There's a band waiting for You; there's persecution; there's death and murder laying in the way. There's exposure of Your own body; they'll strip the clothes off of You; they'll beat You into pulp. They'll pull a crown of thorns over your head, and You'll die screaming for mercy. Should You go on?"

60-0228 Conferences

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

Matthew 26:38 - 39

The Mysteriou

Jesus Stranger

LUKE 24:32

After the death and burial of Jesus, the disciples were sad and confused. They had forgotten that Jesus told them that He would have to die, but would rise again.

Some of the disciples stayed around Jerusalem, wondering what to do next, while others slowly scattered out. It must have been a very sad and confusing time. Could you imagine how they felt? They put all their faith in Jesus, and now He was dead. How could this be?

Two of the disciples decided to go to Emmaus, a village that wasn't too far from Jerusalem. As they were walking, they talked about all the things that had happened. There was a lot to talk about. Jesus had been betrayed by Judas Iscariot, taken prisoner, beaten, and killed. Now the tomb that He was placed in was empty. They just didn't know what to think; it was almost too much to handle.

Soon, Someone joined them along the road. He asked the disciples what they were talking about, and why they were so sad. The disciples thought the Stranger must be from far away, because He had not heard about Jesus, so they explained the whole story to Him.

Once they finished telling the story of Jesus to the Stranger, the conversation changed. It was the Stranger's turn to tell a story!

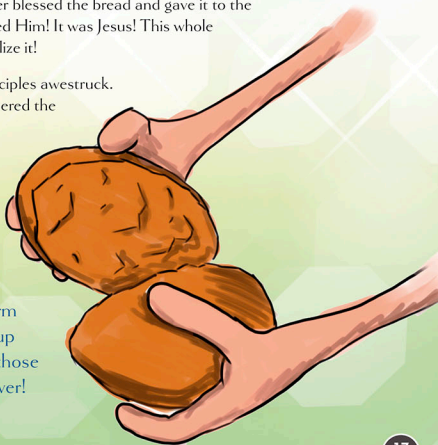

While the three walked down the road, this Man explained the Scriptures in a wonderful way. He talked about Jesus, and how the things that happened to Him had to be so. Somehow this Man knew things about Jesus that most people just wouldn't have known. Exactly who was this Man?

After a long walk, it started to get dark, so the two disciples asked the Stranger to join them for the night. As the three men sat down for supper, the mysterious Stranger blessed the bread and gave it to the disciples. Suddenly their eyes were opened and they recognized Him! It was Jesus! This whole time they had been talking with Jesus and they didn't even realize it!

Suddenly Jesus vanished out of their sight, leaving the two disciples awestruck. How had they been so blinded to who He was? They remembered the conversations they had with Jesus along the road, and asked the question, "Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?"

Now they KNEW that Jesus would always be there with them. He might not look just like He did before, but He would most certainly be there.

Jesus promised us that He would stay here in the form of the Holy Ghost until He comes again to take us up to Heaven. He wants to talk to you just like He did those disciples. All you have to do is ask Him; He will answer!

MOUNTAIN LIONS ARE KNOWN BY MANY NAMES. HERE ARE A FEW:

- Mountain Lions
- Cougars
- Panthers
- Catamounts
- Pumas

And I noticed a panther, you'd call it here in this part of the country. We call it, in the West, a cougar. They call it, up there, a mountain lion. It's all the same animal. It's a puma, really what it is. Same cat, about nine-foot long, weight about a hundred fifty, two hundred pounds. 62-1014E

Young mountain lions have spots and blue eyes!

I think this one is trying to suck its thumb!

This little guy likes to explore, climb on things, and bite his mommy's tail!

They are ambush hunters, which means a lot of times, they hide and wait before jumping on their prey.

Mountain lions have excellent eyesight, and good hearing. They don't always smell too good, though.

Mountain lions like to eat big animals like deer, but they also eat small ones like mice, squirrels, rabbits, and porcupines. The porcupines are good because they have built-in toothpicks.

A BIG MOUNTAIN LION CAN BE OVER 9 FT LONG AND WEIGH OVER 150 LBS!

THEY CAN SPRINT AT 50 MILES PER HOUR. YOU WOULD HAVE TO BE PRETTY BRAVE TO GIVE ONE A SPEEDING TICKET!

Sometimes mountain lions can jump a distance up to 40 feet, and have been known to jump up to 20 feet into a tree!

WEEE! I CAN FLYYYYYYYYY!!!!

I'm telling you, I saw a cat over there that was THIS BIG!

Sure you did, Leo... What's next? Monkeys that like to swim???

Brother Branham's POEM

When Brother Branham was just a kid, he wrote a poem about the Arizona mountains. Here is part of it:

I am lonesome, oh, so lonesome
for that far away southwest,
Where the shadows fall the deepest over the mountain crest.
I can see a lurking coyote
all around the purple haze;
I can hear a lobo hollering down where the longhorns graze.

And somewhere up a canyon

I can hear a lion whine,

In that far off Catalina Mountains at the Arizona line.
