THE KILLER
CUBS

WELCOME!

Greetings and welcome to the 29th issue of Cub Corner magazine! This issue is all about something that we talk about a lot: Love.

We need to love each other no matter what. Sometimes people do things that make us angry, but as Christians, we need to find a way to love them anyway. God does!

In this issue we tell the story of how Abraham sent out his faithful servant, Eliezer, to find a bride for his son, Isaac. Eliezer was a great servant to Abraham, so he prayed that God would help him with his task. It wasn't long before he had found Isaac's bride and took her home to Isaac, where they immediately fell deeply in love.

This story is a type of what is happening today! God has sent His servant, Brother Branham, to get a Bride for His Son, Jesus! We have to trust God's servant and believe what he says. If we listen well, one day he will introduce us to the Bridegroom, Jesus!

I hope that you enjoy this story, and all of the rest of this issue of Cub Corner Magazine.

DEAR CC

Dear CC,

God answered my prayer.

My dad had been working on our roof and there were some really old bird nests. He was about to get rid of them when he heard a "cheep." We called some people to see if they wanted them because we couldn't find their mom. Dad put them back hoping their mom might come back.

I went to my room and prayed that their mom would come back. A little while later, my sister came to me and said "their mom came back!" I knew that the Lord had answered my prayers!

Your sister in Christ,
Lillian

Dear Sister Lillian,

That is a wonderful testimony, thank you for sharing it with us!

-CC

Dear CC,

Hi! I would like to share a testimony about my little brother. My mom was getting ready to have him, and she was good and healthy. But when my mom gave birth to little brother he had purple lips. That means that he could die. So it was a church day and my mom asked for prayer that night.

So that next day or so, he was healed! That is the testimony of my little brother. Now he is 1 year old. I thank God for healing my little brother.

Shaaron

Dear Sister Shaaron,

Thank you for sharing that testimony! Now, every time you see your little brother you can remember how God helped him to live.

We are so thankful that we serve a wonderful God!

I went for a ride in the belly of a huge fish. Then he spit me out right where God wanted me to be!

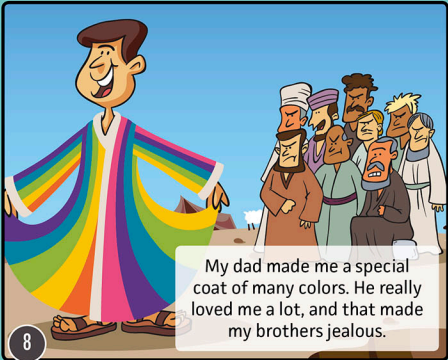

One time my disciples and I were in a boat, and a huge storm came. The waves were giant, and the disciples were scared. I told the storm to go away, and it did!

God spoke to me in a burning bush, then I told Pharaoh to let God's people go!

They told me that I couldn't pray anymore, but I did it anyway. The king threw me to the lions, but God protected me from them!

Trains are huge chunks of metal with giant engines that make lots of loud noise. In a word, they are AWESOME! we love big, loud, fast trains so much that we decided to tell you all about them. Here are the facts:

In the early 1800's, before trains became popular, people had to use horses or boats to get around. Horses could run faster than a train for a short time, but horses got tired, had to stop to get water; and horses couldn't pull nearly as much stuff as a train could!

The longest train trip in the world is in Russia. It is over 5,700 miles long.

Trains played an important role in both world wars. They moved freight and troops all across the U.S.

The fastest train in the world is in Japan. It went over 370 miles per hour!

The heaviest train on record was 4 1/2 miles long and weighed as much as 27 thousand fully grown elephants!

My Dog Lady

Dear CC,

My dog Lady drank some Anti-freeze that we had sitting out. We saw her and Prayed for her God Healed Her!!!!!! She was probably only 1 year old now she is still living today and is 6 years old. We have had her since she was 8 weeks old.

God Bless You, Esther Raymond

PS. She is part German Shephard, part Siberian Husky

I Lost My Charger

I have a testimony. A long time ago, I got an MP3 player as a prize for graduating from the middle Sunday School at Spoken Word Church, and moving up to the big class.

I am very fond of it. It has songs that Brother Branham used to sing at his meetings, stories he told and sermons he preached.

Well, I lost the charger, and my player was dead. I kept praying that I would find it again.

Isn't He wonderful? God takes His time. Dad helped me look for it, and oh joy, we found it! Thank You Jesus!

God bless you,

Sister Elizabeth (13) TN

a NEW COMMANDMENT

Could you imagine what it was like to be one of the disciples who got to spend time with Jesus?

Imagine what Peter, Andrew, James, John, Phillip and the other disciples must have thought when they watched Jesus heal the sick and cast out devils.

It would have been amazing!

They got to sit down and talk to Jesus while He answered their questions and told them all sorts of different things.

One day, Jesus was talking to His disciples during supper. He was very sad, because He knew what was about to happen to Him. He told them that He was going to be betrayed, and that soon He wouldn't be with them anymore.

The disciples were sad and confused, but Jesus wasn't finished speaking yet. He told them that He had a new commandment for them to obey:

"A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

Jesus was telling them a brand new commandment, just like the ones that God gave to Moses! Do you remember the Ten Commandments? Jesus gave them a new one! It was to love one another.

Soon the disciples would be tested, and they would have to put this new commandment into action.

You get tested too! It's easy to love someone when they are nice to you, so that's not a very hard test. The hard test comes when someone isn't nice to you. Can you still love them? If you can, then you are doing what Jesus said! Keep it up!

After Jesus died, Christianity started to grow and many people weren't happy about it. The followers of Jesus were in danger. People wanted them locked up in prison, or even killed!

It was getting worse and worse, until even the great disciple, Peter, was put into prison. Peter's friends loved him very much, but what could they do for him? He was locked up with guards all around him, and they were stuck hiding in John Mark's house. They couldn't try a daring rescue; they would be killed for sure. They couldn't get the judge to let him go, the king was against Peter and was going to kill him no matter what!

What would you do if someone you loved was in a lot of trouble? Peter's friends did the best thing they could have, they prayed. Then they prayed some more. Then they prayed even more! The Bible said, "prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him."

Finally, something wonderful happened. God sent the Angel of the Lord to come and break Peter out of prison! The Angel just walked in there, got Peter, and walked right out with him! What seemed impossible to Peter's friends was easy for God!

When Peter's friends finally saw him they could hardly believe their eyes! God had answered their prayers and released their friend!

Their love for Peter and prayers to God made all the difference for their good friend.

Love is very, very powerful; it is way more powerful than hate. So always remember, if you really want someone or something to change, love is the ultimate weapon to use!

Rebekah

One day, Abraham called in his faithful servant, Eliezer. He had a very important job for him to do. He was to go out of the land of Canaan and find a bride for his son, Isaac. Abraham knew what an important job it was, but he had confidence in his servant, Eliezer. He knew that he was the right man for that job!

Eliezer gathered ten of Abraham's camels along with gold and all of the other things he would need for the trip. He had no idea how he would find a bride for Isaac, but he trusted God and moved forward on his journey.

Eliezer soon found himself near the City of Nahor, in Mesopotamia. He had to make a decision. Should he walk around and look for the most beautiful girl in the city, or should he put it completely into the hands of God and let HIM decide who Isaac should marry?

The great servant Eliezer made the right choice: he decided to leave it up to God. Soon, he was by a well of water outside the city, where he started to pray.

"Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water: And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac..."

Eliezer prayed that the right girl would let him have a drink of her water, and not only that, but she would also offer water to his camels too.

Just then, as Eliezer was still praying, a beautiful young lady came out to the well. After she filled her pitcher, Eliezer ran up to meet her.

"Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher," Eliezer asked of her.

"Drink, my Lord," the beautiful Rebekah replied.

Eliezer must have been smiling while he drank from Rebekah's pitcher. Was this the one? Was the Lord answering his prayer so soon? He knew that if she was the one for Isaac, she would offer to water his camels too.

Then she said the right words, "I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking."

Eliezer stood there and watched beautiful Rebekah give the camels water until they could not drink any more. God had answered his prayer. He had sent Rebekah as a bride for Isaac!

Eliezer was totally convinced that she was the one, so he told Rebekah why he was really there. He told her all about Abraham, and his son, Isaac.

Rebekah believed everything Eliezer told her, and she trusted him to take care of her along the journey back to meet her new husband, Isaac.

It had to be an exciting journey for young Rebekah. Eliezer must have told her all about Isaac and what a great person he was, and what a great husband he would be. Rebekah got more and more excited until the day finally came that she saw him for the first time!

Isaac was out in the field when their eyes met. It was love at first sight, and it was all because of Abraham's faithful servant, Eliezer, and Rebekah's trust in him.

This is a wonderful story that represents us today. Just like Abraham was looking for a bride for Isaac, God is looking for a Bride for His Son, Jesus. Just like Abraham sent out Eliezer, God also sent out a good and faithful messenger, Brother Branham, to find a Bride for His Son.

Our job is like Rebekah's was. We should listen to the messenger, believe what he is telling us, and get ready to meet the One that he is telling us about: Jesus!

You can read about Rebekah in Genesis, Chapter 24

THE KILLER COW

I was a really big, really mean, killer bull! I didn't like people, especially if they climbed over my fence into my home. They thought they could just walk all over the grass that I ate and that I wouldn't care. What would you do if people you didn't know walked all over your home and on your food?! I'll tell you what I did: I killed a man one time for walking through my field.

I was so mean, that they had to move me to a different home far away from people, but I didn't care, as long as they left me alone. If you can't tell, I really needed the Lord in my life.

One day, while I was trying to rest in my new field, I saw a man cross over my fence and into the field. There were signs everywhere telling people to stay out, but this man must have looked over every last one of them! I was so angry!

I was lying behind some scrub oaks, so he didn't see me at first. I waited until he was real close before I stood up. I wanted to make sure he didn't get away. As soon as he got about 20 feet from me, I stood up real fast and threw my big horns in the ground, and bellowed as loud as I could. I started kicking the dirt, and getting ready to charge the man. I knew there was no way he could get away from me now. He was too far away from any tree or fence to run and hide, and he didn't have his gun.

So I took off running just as hard as I could straight for the man, with my head down and my big horns pointed right at him. I was going to kill him. I knew right away this man wasn't a coward though, because he didn't even turn around and run like most people! He stood there like a man, ready to face his death. He wasn't even afraid! Then all of a sudden, something really strange happened. I was only six feet away from killing the man, and I felt something like I had never felt before. I threw my feet out and stopped as fast as I could. Then the man started talking to me! I'd never had anyone try to talk to me before. And he said:

"Now, creature of God, I'm the servant of God. I'm on my way to pray for a sick man, over here dying. And I come across the field here, where your home is; I'm sorry I broke into your home.” That’s what I did. I broke into his home. That’s all the home he knows of. Now, now, stop and think; that’s true. I said, “I—I come into your house. I broke in on you. I’m sorry. You forgive me. I’ll go across the field; I—I won’t bother you.” And I said, “Now, in the Name of Jesus Christ, our Creator, go over there and lay down again. I’ll not bother you.”

I looked at him. I looked this way, and that way. I didn’t know what to think. I got really quiet and calmed right down, and I walked over and laid down. That man walked within five feet of me, and I never even turned and looked at him again. I let him walk right out of my pasture to go pray for the sick man.

That day, the Lord changed me from the mean, killer bull that I was, and He made me a new creature full of His love. What was it? What happened when I came into the presence of that man? It was perfect love that changed me!

NS RACCOONS

GOD'S CREATIONS ✨ RACCOONS

RACCOONS DON'T HIBERNATE, BUT IN WINTER THEY SOMETIMES STAY IN THEIR WARM AND COZY DEN FOR WEEKS AT A TIME.

THE FIRST TIME A RACCOON WAS SPOTTED IN TOWN WAS IN CINCINNATI, IN THE 1920S.

THE ENGLISH WORD "RACCOON" COMES FROM THE POWHATAN WORD MEANING "ANIMAL THAT SCRATCHES WITH ITS HANDS."

THEY EAT FRUITS, PLANTS, NUTS, BERRIES, INSECTS, RODENTS, FROGS, EGGS, AND EVEN CRAYFISH. IN FACT, THEY WILL EAT JUST ABOUT ANYTHING. WOW, THEY ARE A LOT LIKE LITTLE BROTHERS!

THEY ARE MOSTLY NOCTURNAL, MEANING THAT THEY STAY UP ALL NIGHT. SORT OF LIKE WHEN YOUR FRIENDS SPEND THE NIGHT AT YOUR HOUSE!

RACCOONS
SWIMMERS.
THEY CAN STAY IN THE WATER FOR HOURS AT A TIME.

MALE = BOAR
FEMALE = SOW
BABY = KIT

RACCOONS
PURR, CHITTER,
GROWL, SNARL, AND SNORT.

HEY WAIT A MINUTE! IS YOUR BABY BROTHER A RACCOON?!

A RACCOON'S
BACK LEGS
ARE LONGER THAN HIS FRONT ONES.
THAT'S WHY
THEY LOOK
HUNCHED
OVER WHEN THEY RUN.

THEY CAN STAND UP ON TWO FEET!

THEY HAVE FIVE TOES ON THEIR FRONT LEGS. THAT MAKES THEM
REALLY GOOD
AT GRABBING
THINGS. THIS
CLIMBING!

FUNNIES

Hey everyone, it's Professor Knowsnothing! I was a kid once too, so I decided to write down a couple of things I've learned over the years. Here is my top ten list of some of the lessons I've learned. I hope they help you out a little!

1 Don't pick on your sister when she's holding a baseball bat.

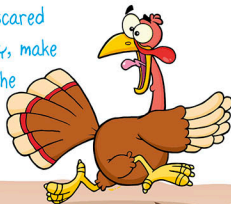

3 Mommies somehow know that little brothers and sisters aren't crying because someone did something nice.

4 If you think someone is staring at you, try yawning. If they yawn too, they were probably staring.

5 It's hard to eat applesauce with your fingers.

6 If you get scared and run away, make sure to run in the right direction.

8 When moms use your middle name, it means they really want you to listen.

9 Things don't usually fall up.

10 Never trust a dog to watch your food.

7 When you are trying to balance a garbage bag on top of another garbage bag, it's probably time to take the garbage out.
