WELCOME

Did you know that the very last sermon Brother Branham preached on this earth was the sermon, Communion? This was only days before the Lord took Brother Branham Home to his Eternal reward.

Something else that's neat to think about is, Communion was also one of the very last things that the Lord Jesus did here on earth with his disciples, only days before His crucifixion. Also, Communion was the last thing the children of Israel did before leaving Egypt for the promised land. And soon, Communion will be the first thing we do after we're Raptured up to Glory, and sit at the Wedding Supper with our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

If you haven't already guessed it, this issue of Cub Corner magazine is all about Communion. I know I'm talking to Tape boys and Tape girls that already know most of these stories, but there's nothing I love more than talking about the Word, and Communion is a VERY important thing, the showdown for every Christian, that we all need to learn more about. As Brother Branham told us:

"...if you walk into anything blindly, you don't know where, what you're doing. You can't have even confidence if you don't know what you're doing. But you must understand what you are doing and why you're doing it."

We're so thankful that God sent us a prophet to bring us a Message to tell us exactly what we're doing, and why we're doing it. And the only way you can truly understand, is by pressing play and letting the Holy Spirit speak to our hearts through His anointed messenger.

God bless you,

Bro. Joseph Branham

LAMBS

Lambs, Brother Branham said, are the meekest and most gentlest creatures there are on the earth.

Did you ever stop to wonder what is so special about a lamb? Did you ever think that a lamb ties in with Communion? Well, it does!

When our Lord Jesus came to the earth, Brother Branham said He came as a lamb. He was born in a stable like a lamb. He was born in the spring like a lamb, and even born under the birth sign of the ram!

Lambs cannot fend for themselves, they have to be led. And our Lord Jesus was led to the cross to die for our sins. The very bread we eat in Communion represents the broken body of the Lamb of God. And now, the Lord Jesus is the Great Shepherd that watches over us, His little lambs! We're helpless and can't fend for ourselves, but He protects us, and He sent us His prophet to lead us and teach us how to stay close to Him, our Lord Jesus Christ.

In the Old Testament a lamb was offered as a sacrifice for sin, foreshadowing the coming of Christ to take our place for our sin. A lamb would be brought to the temple and washed before it was sacrificed. Brother Branham said that Jesus came to John the Baptist in the water to do just that. God came to His prophet in the water!

“John, knowing that the Sacrifice must be washed before It’s sacrificed, and He was the Sacrifice, so he baptized Him, the sinless One, washing the Sacrifice before It was presented.”

62-0218 “Perseverance”

Do you know of another time God came to His prophet in the water? That’s right! This happened when Brother Branham was baptizing at the foot of Spring Street in Jeffersonville in 1933, when the Pillar of Fire came down and said, “As John the Baptist was sent to forerun the first Coming of Christ, you’ll have a Message that’ll forerun the second Coming of Christ.”

“The sheep of God are fed by the Word of God. The Holy Spirit in you, what makes you the sheep, feeds solemnly on the Word.”

57-0308 “The Good Shepherd Of The Sheep”

All throughout the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, you find lambs. In the very first Book of the Bible, Abel led his lamb, by spiritual revelation, to the altar for sacrifice. In the very last Book of the Bible, there stood a Lamb that was slain before the foundation of the world. In this edition of God's Creations, we are going to take a look at some places that lambs are mentioned and learn a few cool facts about them.

Gideon

Gideon was chosen by the Lord to deliver the children of Israel out of the hands of the Midianites.

God came down in the form of a man to visit Gideon, and commissioned him to deliver Israel. He had been chosen, but he wanted to be positive before going into battle.

Before this mighty man of valor chose his men, he placed a fleece of wool before the Lord, and asked that dew would only be on the fleece and not the ground, come morning. When Gideon arose the next day, it happened just how he asked, the fleece was wet, but the ground around it was dry.

Gideon had gotten his answer, but again he asked the Lord a second time. This time he asked that the fleece be dry and the ground around be wet from dew. God answered once again, and Gideon moved forward to deliver Israel from the hand of the Midianites.

Abraham

Abraham was a true servant of God. One day God told him to take his promised son, Isaac, up on top of a mountain to sacrifice him. Abraham didn't know why, but he obeyed what God had told him to do. He had built the altar, built the fire, but Isaac asked, “Where is the sacrifice?” Abraham told him, “God will provide for Himself a sacrifice.” Just as Abraham started to pull the knife down to slay his only son, Brother Branham said an Angel grabbed his hand and stopped him.

Just then, a little ram was found with its horns caught in a vine, blatting. Just like when Brother Branham spoke squirrels into existence, a ram came into existence for Abraham's sacrifice.

Bartimaeus

Brother Branham told us that Blind Bartimaeus had a seeing-eye lamb to lead him around, like people today use dogs to help lead them around. Well, Bartimaeus needed that lamb. He couldn't go without it.

Brother Branham tells a story how Bartimaeus' little girl got sick. The lamb that led him around was all that he had. He told the Lord, "But if You'll let my little girl, who I've never seen, if You'll only let her get well, then I'll give You my lamb for a sacrifice." God healed his little girl, and Bartimaeus gave the Lord his lamb. What would he do? How would he get around?

One cold November day, Bartimaeus heard a noise coming down the street. Someone had told him, "Jesus of Nazareth, He passes by." Bartimaeus began to cry out, "O Jesus, Thou Son of David, have mercy! Have mercy!" God had provided a Lamb for Blind Bartimaeus' eyes and our Lord Jesus Christ healed his eyes.

Milltown

Brother Branham one time had a vision of a lamb in darkness. He went after it, going through briars and everything to find it. He kept hearing it say, "Baa". The closer he got, it became a human's voice saying, "Milltown". He kept going, and eventually heard someone calling, "Brother Branham?"

The lamb was a little sick girl named Georgie Carter. She had laid on a bed, sick, for almost 10 years. She heard where a crippled girl had been healed, and she was crying and praying that Brother Branham would visit her. He found her, prayed for her and left. One night after this, Brother Branham was praying in the woods and the Lord told him, "Go by the way of Carter's." He rose up, went to her house, took her by the hand and said, "As the—the Lord God has said to me, 'In The Name of The Lord Jesus Christ, rise up and be whole,'" and she was instantly healed!

My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

John 10:27

AFTER THE BATTLE, ABRAHAM AND HIS 318 SERVANTS WALKED INTO THE VALLEY OF SHAVEH. ON HIS SIDE HE CARRIED HIS RUSTY, BLOODY SWORD.

FOLLOWING CLOSE BEHIND, CAME HIS NEPHEW, LOT, AND ALL HIS PEOPLE AND POSSESSIONS, saved and redeemed from the clutches of the enemy. It was here in this valley of the kings that Abraham was met by the king of Sodom. He had just overcome and conquered an army of five kings and kingdoms, and he deserved to be recognized. But Abraham wasn't concerned about meeting and greeting earthly kings. There was One far greater Who had walked into the camp. Melchizedek, King of Salem, Priest of the Most High God, had come down in the form of a man to bring bread and wine and bless His prophet.

There they sat and fellowshiped as they broke the bread and drank the wine, having sacred communion with one another. Abraham thanked Him and said, "... blessed be the Most High God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand." And then he gave Him tithes of all that he had.

How special of a moment that must've been for Abraham! He was nothing in the eyes of the world, but he was a humble servant of Jehovah God who searched for and redeemed his fallen brother.

Through this humble prophet of God, came the Royal Seed of Abraham, our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. And our Lord, like Abraham, came down one day in search of His fallen children. He overcame the enemy who had us bound, and He defeated death, hell, and the grave that day on Calvary, when He redeemed us with His Own Blood. Now we, like Abraham, after the battle is over, can sit at the Table with our Lord and break the bread and drink the wine, as we have blessed communion with one another.

How thankful we are for this communion we now have with the Lord. It's a sacred reminder of who and what we are as sons and daughters of God, Royal Seeds of Abraham. Like Abraham, we must forsake the things of the world and be ready to do anything we can to serve the Lord with all of our hearts.

And now it's a very beautiful type tonight of people who take Communion, is not to be associated or affiliated with things of the world anymore. They must come under the Blood, first, and be cleansed from all sin, which is unbelief; and then be shod with the preparation of the Gospel, having on the whole armor of God, ready for the summons at anytime.

THE PASSOVER

“I have heard from God. There will be a token. And you put the blood upon the door. Slay the lamb, put the blood upon the door, and that’ll be a token, because death is fixing to strike.”

63-0901M Token

An illustration of a man and a woman in ancient-style clothing. The man, on the right, has dark curly hair and a beard, wearing a blue tunic with a red sash. He is reaching up to apply red paint to the top wooden lintel of a dark wooden door. The woman, on the left, has dark hair and is wearing a green and white tunic. She is also applying red paint to the left wooden post of the door. A bowl of red paint sits on the floor in the foreground. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

It was a night
unlike any other.
Darkness had covered the land of Egypt.

There wasn't a star in the sky that gave its light, and the moon refused to come out. The prophet Moses had already spoken judgment upon Egypt. He spoke, and it had to come to pass. The firstborn of Egypt would all perish this night for not obeying the Lord, and not letting God's people go. Egypt was to receive judgment, but the children of Israel received the Token. "Take the blood of the lamb and strike the lintel and two posts of the door," were the prophet Moses' instructions to the children of Israel. The death angel would surely pass by, but if the children of Israel obeyed their prophet, they would be safe. Like all the plagues that had come before, from this too they would not be harmed.

It was certainly a dark night. The black wings of death were about to come down, but the children of Israel rested in the land of Goshen, letting off the pressure...

“When I see the blood, I will pass over you.”

A young boy stood nervously by the window looking outside. This would be the very last night that he and his family would spend in Goshen. By the morning light, they would be on their journey to a land flowing with milk and honey. His parents talked with much faith about the promise they had been given. He believed, but this was the showdown. He had to be sure. He looked out the window with concern.

“Daddy, look. What is that coming down the street?” His father sat back with no worry, as if he had never heard his son’s request.

“Daddy, I’m your firstborn.” His father still set back reading.

“Daddy, that little boy down the street, I used to play with him.”

His father laid down his glasses and rose up from where he was sitting. “Come here, son. I want to show you something.” The father walked over with his son and placed his arm around his shoulder. As he knelt down, he pointed to the outside of the door and asked, “Do you see that blood on the door, son?” “Yes, Daddy, I see it”, replied the little boy.

“Truly, it’s gloomy outside. Death is all around us, but our prophet Moses has told us, ‘When I see the blood, I will pass over you.’ It may come to the door, but it can’t come in. It has to pass on.”

“But Daddy,” interrupted the son.

“Son, can I ask you a question?”

“Yes, Daddy.”

“Had you ever seen a fly in the land before a few weeks ago?”

“Well, no. I hadn’t seen one... And they never bothered us.”

"That's right, son. The reason they are here now is because they were created. They were spoken into existence." The boy stood quietly.

"From the mouth of God's prophet came forth something that had not been in the land. If he spoke and those things took place, then can't we have confidence in what he's told us for tonight?"

"Daddy," spoke the boy as he looked up at his father.

"What is it, son?"

"I just make so many mistakes," replied the boy.

His father gave a small smile. He looked his son in the eyes and said, "We all do, son, but God has made a way for us, and we have obeyed His Word. We have the blood on the door, we are justified. You can let off the pressure."

The little boy gave a smile back, well satisfied at his father's reassurance. He always believed, but a new faith seemed to take a hold.

"Come, son. Let's go to the table," the father spoke. "We have a long journey ahead of us, but provision has been made."

The children of Israel first applied the blood on their door posts, and then they took the Passover Communion as they started their journey.

Brother Branham tells us that Communion is a showdown to the real believer. We approach it reverently, making sure we are checked up in our lives. As the boy in the story expressed, we make our mistakes. We are human, but if you are trying to serve the Lord and do what He wants you to do, when you fall, you get back up. As they did in Goshen with placing the blood on the door posts, we apply the Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ on the door post of our hearts by faith. As we confess our sins, He places them under His Blood to be remembered no more, and we have fellowship, communion with Him.

"If he spoke and those things took place, then can't we have confidence in what he's told us for tonight?"

THE LORD'S SUPPER

THE PASSOVER FEAST WAS NIGH, AND THE DISCIPLES WENT TO JESUS, ASKING WHERE THEY SHOULD MAKE READY FOR THE SUPPER THAT NIGHT...

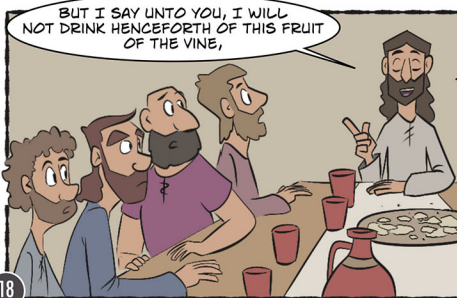

THE PLACE WAS SET. AN UPPER ROOM HAD BEEN PREPARED BY JESUS' DISCIPLES, AS THEY HAD BEEN TOLD TO DO. THIS WOULD BE THE LAST NIGHT THEY WOULD SPEND TOGETHER BEFORE JESUS' CRUCIFIXION...

THEN JESUS STARTED BREAKING THE BREAD...

THEN JESUS TOOK A TOWEL AND GIRDED HIMSELF, AND HE Poured WATER INTO A BASIN,

AND BEGAN TO WASH HIS DISCIPLES' FEET.

BUT WHEN IT WAS PETER'S TURN...

LORD, YOU'RE NEVER WASHING MY FEET!

YOU HAVE NO PART WITH ME.

IF I DON'T WASH YOUR FEET, PETER

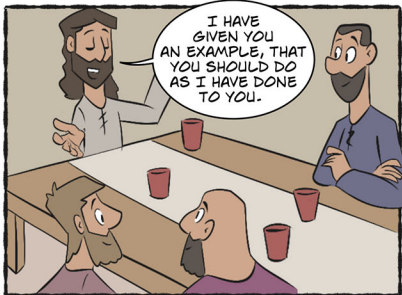

THEN LORD NOT MY FEET ONLY, BUT MY HANDS AND MY HEAD.

HE THAT IS WASHED NEEDETH NOT SAVE TO WASH HIS FEET, BUT IS CLEAN EVERY WHIT.

I HAVE GIVEN YOU AN EXAMPLE, THAT YOU SHOULD DO AS I HAVE DONE TO YOU.

I HAVE MANY THINGS TO SAY UNTO YOU, BUT YOU CANNOT BEAR THEM NOW.

BUT, WHEN HE, THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH, IS COME,

HE WILL REMIND YOU OF THESE THINGS THAT I HAVE SAID,

AND ALSO SHOW YOU THINGS TO COME. LISTEN TO HIM.

BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS!

AND WHEN THEY HAD SUNG A HYMN, THEY WENT OUT UNTO THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

COMMUNION

Brother Branham told us how important Communion is. It's a showdown in the life of a believer. It's a checking-up time to make sure we are living what we profess to be, followers of our Lord Jesus. If we really love Him, we will do what He's commanded us to do. Sure, we make our mistakes, but deep down in our hearts we have a revelation of Who He is today.

It was a showdown for our Lord Jesus. In the garden of Gethsemane, He prayed, "Father, is it possible this cup should pass from Me? But, nevertheless, not My will, Thine be done." Brother Branham said He had a right to a family, a home, but He gave all of that up for us.

The night before His crucifixion, He came together with His disciples to fellowship with them, to spend time with the ones He loved. He knew the cross laid before Him. He knew He was to be crucified the very next day. And He knew what was to happen in this day. He told His disciples,

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come."

St. John 16:12-13

UNION

Perhaps His disciples didn't know what everything He said to them meant, but they had a revelation of Who He was and they believed Him. When He had finished washing His disciples' feet, He told them,

"Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you."

St. John 13:13-15

In our day, the Lord Jesus sent us a guide — a prophet— who did not speak of himself, but what the Lord told him lip to ear (what he heard). This same one told us who we are, and showed us things to come. He too had a showdown, to bring the Word. He was the Word. It cost him friends, it cost him fellowship with churches, but he only did that which was pleasing to the Father. He gave his life to fulfill the Word of God which was spoken of him. And at the close of his earthly life, he preached the message, Communion. Brother Branham said,

"Know ye what I have done to you? You call me, your pastor, and you say well, for so I am. If I, your pastor, have been identified by Jesus Christ, that I do His work, then believe my word:"

63-0825E Perfect Faith

How amazing it is to think, the last thing that they both did in their earthly journey was take Communion. So, what is Communion? Our Lord Jesus said, "This do in remembrance of Me." Brother Branham said this:

"It's a revelation that I am part of Him and I'm part of you, and I love you and I love Him, and we're taking this together as a symbol of our love to God, and our love and fellowship to one another."

WHAT IS COMMUNION?

What is Communion? Why do we take it? What is the bread and wine? Who should take Communion? Brother Branham told us that Communion is something that we just can't walk into blindly. It must be approached reverently and we have to know what we are doing. Thank the Lord, God sent us a prophet to show us what true Communion is. We don't have to stumble or wonder about anything.

“When we take this, it shows to the church, that, 'I believe every Word of God. I believe that He is the Bread of Life that come from God out of Heaven. I believe every Word that He says is the Truth. And I live by It, to the best of my knowledge, God being my Judge.'”

1

“Now, I do believe that Communion, or what we call, 'Communion,' now is to...is _____.”

2

Who did Brother Branham say was the prophet of the New Testament that taught taking the literal Lord's Supper?

What did Israel keep as a memorial coming out of Egypt?

4 “When we have taken the Lord, our Sacrifice, into us, as a matter of spiritual Birth into us, and His Body, we live by Him by the Word, we also should _____ it because it’s a commandment.”

5 What three things did Brother Branham say we must do as a symbol?

6 “But, if you noticed, the Bible said, ‘He that _____ unworthily shall be guilty of the Blood and the Body of the Lord.’ See? You’ve got to live a life that—that... before the people, that... and before God and the people, that shows that you are—that you are sincere.”

7 “You don’t take the Lord’s Supper by a _____. You take it because it’s the love of God in your heart, in keeping the commandments of God.”

8 “We believe that God has give us a Message. It’s been _____ of God, It’s been _____ of God, It’s been _____ of God.”

9 “Now, let me stop right here, to say: but taking the body of the Lord Jesus Christ in this Communion, does not mean that that Communion is the _____ body of Christ.”

10 How long did Israel journey in the wilderness and their clothes never wore out and there wasn’t a feeble one among them when they come out?

“And we do this because that we are giving thanks to Him, and among one another. Eating the bread between each other, drinking the wine between each other, as His Blood and His flesh.”
